Mark Reader,
Nicolaus & Company, Incorporated

Mr. Reader is a Managing Director with over 32-years of Arizona public finance experience, starting in 1989. His primary focus is Arizona Cities/Towns/CFDs and Counties where he has developed a passion and expertise within this specialized area of Public Finance, consistently managing approximately 40 Arizona financings per year. During this time, he has structured and managed a wide variety of traditional tax-exempt bond transactions including general obligation bonds, excise tax revenue bonds, water and sewer utility revenue bonds, special assessment bonds, WIFA Loan transactions, HURF bonds, CFDs and Certificates of Participation.

In the past 12 months, Mr. Reader has been one of the lead bankers in Arizona in the innovative development of the PSPRS Refunding bond transactions, working closely with his Stifel colleagues out of our Chicago office. Of the 12 transactions completed to date in Arizona, Stifel has been involved in all of them as Senior Managing Underwriter (10 – 12) or as Co-Manager (2 out of 12).

Mr. Reader's Financial Advisor or Underwriter clients include the City of Avondale, City of Buckeye, City of Peoria (previous CFD engagements, City of Goodyear (CFDS), City of Flagstaff, Town of Florence, City of Yuma, Town of Marana, Town of Oro Valley, Regional Transportation Authority of Pima and Pinal County, Metropolitan Domestic Water Improvement District and Lake Havasu City and Pinal County, to name a few.

Mr. Reader graduated from the University of Arizona with a bachelor of science in Finance and Accounting. He holds his Series 7, Series 50 and Series 63 licenses. Mr. Reader is a University of Arizona Eller Associate where he has participated in interviewing and assisting undergraduate business students. He is also a member of GFOA, GFOAz and ACMA (and volunteer for the Harvard Scholarship Program). Mr. Reader is a passionate advocate for Arizona Cities and Towns and is actively involved in legislative issues as requested by his clients and other organizations such as the League and County Supervisors Association.

Philip Rodriguez,
City Manager, City of Yuma

Philip Rodriguez has over 20 years of professional experience, with the past 13 encompassing nearly every level of government administration. Although he enjoyed success serving as a consultant to non-governmental organizations and not-for-profits in the first phase of his career, he found his true passion to be in local government service. Philip currently serves as the City Administrator in Yuma, Arizona, a diverse community of 108,000 permanent residents that swells to over 200,000 during the winter months due to Yuma's unparalleled winter weather. In Yuma, Philip helped create and now oversees the city's first strategic plan, a fiscal year budget of $250 million, and is honored to lead a dynamic staff of over 1,100. He was appointed in 2019 by the City Council who operate under the City's Charter and the Council-Manager form of government. After earning his Master of Public Administration degree from the top-ranked program at The University of Kansas and his Bachelor of Science in Organizational Management from Colorado Christian University, Philip went on to serve several cities in Texas and one in northern Colorado. Philip is married to his high school sweetheart and he and his wife are proud parents to two daughters and future leaders; a law student and a high school junior.
